The illustration features four stylized human figures from the chest up, arranged in a circle. From left to right: a person with long red hair wearing a blue and white striped shirt; a person with short grey hair wearing a yellow sweater with small black dashes; a person with short blonde hair wearing an orange and blue striped shirt; and a person with short dark blue curly hair wearing a teal checkered shirt. Above them are three large, overlapping umbrellas: a yellow one with a white wavy pattern on the left, an orange one with small white dots in the center, and a dark blue one with three white circles on the right. The background is a light cream color.
